December 09, 2021

Bell Nunnally Managing Partner Christopher B. Trowbridge is featured in the 2022 edition of “The Dallas 500,” a special publication from D Magazine Partners (publishers of D Magazine and D CEO) and available now for purchase. Trowbridge is listed in the “Law – Business and IP Litigation” category and is one of 18 in the “Law – Managing Partners” category, part of a larger roundup featuring 500 North Texas business leaders across more than 50 industries.

“This achievement positions Chris among the most powerful and influential business leaders in North Texas,” said Tammy Wood, Bell Nunnally partner and head of the firm’s Litigation Section. “Chris is a fantastic leader, at the firm, in the courtroom and in the community. He brings energy and commitment to everything he does, which includes being a great dad. Chris’ vision, whether with the Thanks-Giving Foundation or as the leader here at Bell Nunnally, is unparalleled.”

“The Dallas 500” is produced by the editors of D CEO and features “the most powerful business leaders in Dallas – Fort Worth.” According to the publication, selections were made based on extensive contacts in local business circles, hundreds of interviews and months of research.

“Making the Dallas 500 is no easy feat in a market as large and vibrant as North Texas,” said D CEO editor Christine Perez. “Those featured in our 2022 edition are at the best of the best; they play an integral role in driving the local economy.”

Trowbridge is a trial attorney with particular emphasis on complex business disputes. He has been with Bell Nunnally for over 20 years. Trowbridge maintains an active docket and regularly tries cases before juries, judges and arbitration panels across the country. In 2017, he secured a $23.1 million jury verdict on behalf of a national cattle broker in a fraud matter involving a check kiting scheme and fraudulent cattle transactions – a matter that garnered national media attention and was ranked in the top five of Texas Lawyer's "Top Verdicts & Settlements" that year.

Selected by attorney peers for inclusion in Benchmark Litigation's guide for two years in a row, The Best Lawyers in America since 2017, as a "Texas Super Lawyer" since 2013 and previously named in "Legal Leaders on the Rise" and "Litigator of the Week" by Texas Lawyer, Trowbridge is well-known for vigorously protecting his clients' interests in high-stakes legal matters. In 2017 and 2019, D Magazine named him to its "Best Lawyers in Dallas" list. This is Trowbridge's third selection to "The Dallas 500."

Active in his community, Trowbridge is chairman of the board of directors for the Thanks-Giving Foundation – the non-profit group that owns and operates Thanks-Giving Square, a contemplation garden, exhibition hall and interfaith chapel in Downtown Dallas. He is also a former chairman of the board of directors for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Dallas; a member of the Communities Foundation of Texas Advisory Council; and a member of the Dallas Regional Chamber, Southern Dallas Task Force. Trowbridge earned both his J.D. ('98) and his B.B.A. ('95) from Baylor University.
