

BELL NUNNALLY'S ALEX RISINGER NAMED DAYL'S "ONE TO WATCH"

March 08, 2021

The Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL) has named Bell Nunnally Associate Alexandria M. Risinger to its member profile section "One to Watch." Risinger, who recently joined the firm, is profiled in DAYL's March member newsletter, including this feedback from one of her fellow members of the 2020 DAYL Leadership Class:

Alex brings tireless energy and determination to every project, while still managing to bring fun and enjoyment to whatever she is working on. In DAYL's first-ever virtual leadership class, Alex demonstrated tremendous leadership by serving on the Steering Committee and going above and beyond in her duties to execute the virtual tenant eviction project. As part of the DAYL leadership class project, Alex has worked closely with non-profit groups assisting tenants, and in her free time, she has scanned countless legal forms relating to tenant evictions so that DAYL could make revisions and update the legal forms for non-profit use. She is always the first one to volunteer for a challenging task and she will execute it perfectly. Alex is an all-star and is an asset to any team she joins.

To read the full DAYL "One to Watch" profile for Alex, please click here.

Related Practices

Litigation