

BELL NUNNALLY'S KHAKI SCRIVNER NAMED TO THE RAWLS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AT TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY RECENT ALUMNI BOARD

December 13, 2022

Bell Nunnally Associate Khaki A. Scrivner has been named to the Rawls College of Business Recent Alumni Board at Texas Tech University – “a diverse group of young professionals who work to advance the present and future of Rawls College by contributing to the quality of its programs, providing a voice to recent alumni on relevant issues and encouraging involvement from recent graduates.” The board’s 42 members organize, promote, and sponsor events and activities that engage recent alumni and recognize outstanding businesses and individual business leaders. They also endeavor to support Rawls students and faculty by helping to raise funds for scholarships, Rawls programs and endowed funds. Scrivner is a 2015 graduate of Texas Tech (BBA in Energy Commerce, summa cum laude) and is an alum of the Scovell Business Leadership Program.
