IRA PEREZ NAMED 2019 DALLAS COUNTY CIVIC VOICES FELLOW

July 05, 2018

Bell Nunnally attorney Ira B. Perez has been admitted into Leadership ISD's Dallas County Civic Voices Fellowship – part of Dallas-based Leadership ISD's efforts to work with and advocate for improvement at public schools in Dallas, Harris and Tarrant counties. Perez was selected based on demonstrating an “exceptional commitment to ensuring equitable access to a high quality public education for all students.”

The Civic Voices Fellowship is centered on the values of passion, empathy and innovation, with initiatives focused on information, insight and influence. As part of the leadership class, Perez will hear from key voices locally and nationally on education reform and excellence, engage on-site and hands-on with schools in Dallas County and serve as a community advocate for education reform and support.
