GREG SEES HIS PURPOSE AS NOT ONLY TO RESOLVE CLIENTS' IMMEDIATE LEGAL CONCERNS BUT ALSO TO EMPOWER THEM WITH INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS AND STRATEGIC GUIDANCE, SO THEY CAN CONFIDENTLY NAVIGATE FUTURE CHALLENGES AND ACHIEVE THEIR LONG-TERM OBJECTIVES.

Greg Nieman is a dedicated advocate who is committed to effective communication and client satisfaction. As a litigation associate, he has experience handling cases involving breach of contract, fraud, shareholder disputes, fiduciary claims, consumer protection, employment disputes, premises liability and construction defects. He has represented companies in a variety of industries, including advertising, real estate, construction, retail and hospitality.

Prior to joining private practice, Greg served as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable Justice Shawn A. Womack of the Arkansas Supreme Court. Additionally, he clerked for a pro bono litigation firm that works to advance constitutional rights and individual liberties in state and federal courts throughout the country. These experiences have provided him with great insights into judicial decision-making and successful litigation tactics.
