BELIEVING IT IS IMPORTANT TO FULLY UNDERSTAND THE CLIENT’S BUSINESS AND LEGAL GOALS AT THE OUTSET, KENNY TAKES A COLLABORATIVE APPROACH WITH CLIENTS TO BUILD EFFECTIVE LITIGATION STRATEGIES – AND THEN ZEALOUSLY ADVOCATES ON THEIR BEHALF.

Kenny Meixelsperger balances vigilant and aggressive representation with a collegial disposition to help clients resolve their real estate and commercial disputes. As a trial lawyer, he brings more than 20 years of experience handling a wide range of litigation matters. He has tried cases in state and federal courts within Texas and beyond, including disputes involving commercial interests and contracts, real estate and construction, antitrust claims, products liability and a number of general tort/catastrophic injury matters.

Always putting the client's ultimate business objectives first, Kenny is quick to become their trusted advisor.

Representative Experience

Kenny’s significant experience includes the representation of:

- Major hotel operator in construction defect litigation.
- Major pump, valve and seal manufacturer in defense against breach of a settlement agreement, fraud and antitrust claims, which settled favorably for the client before trial.
- Real estate developer in defense of misrepresentation and breach of guaranty claims.
- Publicly traded, independent oil and gas producer in a dispute related to the lease of oil field services equipment.
- Publicly traded, motor sports facilities operator in significant antitrust litigation that was dismissed on summary judgment on the eve of trial.
- World's largest provider of food, beverage and retail services in airports in significant dram shop litigation in Texas and Missouri.

- Representation of landlords and tenants in commercial lease disputes.
- Defense of industrial manufacturer in Lanham Act (False Advertising) claim.

Products liability and general tort/catastrophic injury matters, including:

- Global food company in numerous premises liability and product liability cases.
- Major U.S. construction company in a multi-fatality, wrongful-death lawsuit arising from the collapse of a university bonfire.
- "One call" underground utility locator in wrongful death litigation arising from an oil field pipeline explosion.
- Manufacturer of flow-control products in relation to a steam line explosion in downtown Manhattan.
- Publicly traded, independent oil and gas producer in internal investigations related to employee and third-party significant workplace injuries.
- Major independent service provider for ATMs and armored car services in wrongful death arising from fatality collision.
- Major conversion van up-fitter in significant product liability case arising from side-impact collision.
- Home health agency against claims of neglect and wrongful death, which was voluntarily dismissed after expert report was struck.
